

BLOCK : BARJORA

Block-wise Information Booklet

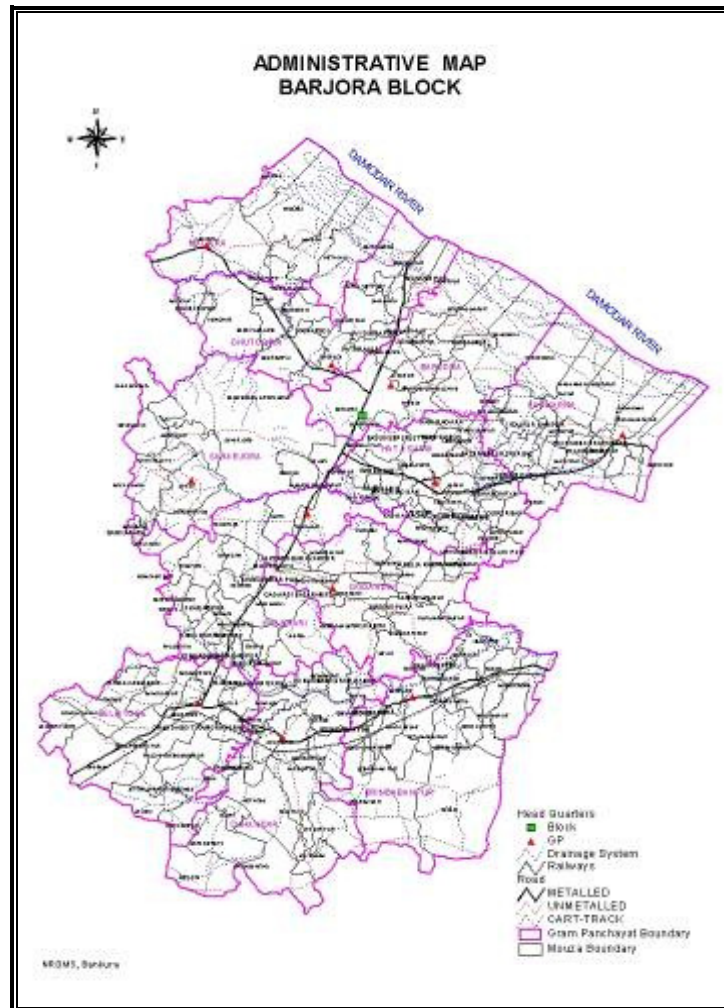

Barjora is a semi urban block renowned for recent Industrial spurt. It is situated in the right bank of the upper catchments of river Damodar in the extreme northern part of the District Bankura. Green forest with laterite soil embraces the entire region a picturesque set up.

The main source of living bread of the population of Barjora Development Block is an Agricultural, though very recently dependence on Industry amongst the people have increased. Drought, hard texture, low water retention capacity of soil, very low ground water level and inadequate surface water management and soil erosion are main barrier to agricultural growth in 70% of the block area and for this migration for work was common phenomenon seen amongst the agricultural laborers of the locality. Acute situation has got a sea change, with the implementation of MGNREGS and some prominent welfare oriented schemes of the Government.

As per order of the Delimitation Commission, No-253 Barjora (Assembly constituency) is composed of the following : Barjora Community Development Block and Bhaktabandh, Gangajalghati, Gobindadham, Kapista, Nityanandapur and Piraboni Gram Panchayats of Gangajalghati Community Development Block.

253 Barjora Assembly constituency is part of No. 34 Bishnupur Parliamentary Constituency.

There exists a good and healthy relationship between the people of the locality and Block administration and people used to see the Block Administration as popular face of the governance and for this implementation of different govt. schemes are not a very hard task in this block.
