There was a rich crop of Gazetteer literature in our country during the British period. Their compilation was necessitated by practical needs of administration and for the satisfaction of intellectual curiosity of our foreign rulers. All of them have been out of print for a long time. As historical documents they are in great demand. Keeping this in view, the West Bengal Government have planned to issue their reprint. This tradition of Gazetteer literature has also been kept alive by the publication of revised editions of these old Gazetteers by incorporating latest data. They are useful equally to Administrators, Scholars and Lay-readers. They are being issued in vernacular also.
