

Government of West Bengal

Office of the Assistant Director

Bureau of Applied Economics & Statistics

School danga Road, Near Rocket Gali, Bankura 722101. Tel/Fax 03242-294833 E-mail: adbankura@gmail.com

1. Our Objective

To collect, coordinate, collate and disseminate credible and timely statistics on different fields covering all sectors of the state economy, keeping pace with the changing technological and economic aspects.

To maintain close liaison with different departments, organizations and bodies of the central and State Governments in disseminating statistical information on various fields through a number of regular publications.

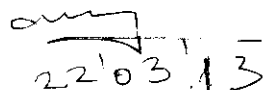

2. Activities of this Office

2.1 Periodic Works :

- i) Crop Cutting Experiments (CCE) for 19 major crops in 4 seasons of the year under EARAS Scheme, viz. Bhadui, Winter, Rabi, & Summer for crop yield estimation.
- ii) *The field work for improvement of crop statistics:-
A sample check on area survey conducted by the primary workers. of DLRS e.g. Amins / R.I along with a check for CCEs are done parallelly with N.S.S.O.(G.O.I.) throughout all seasons every year under the improvement of Crop Statistics Scheme.*
- iii) *Cereal Consumption Survey Work:-
A survey to determine marketable surplus of Rice, Wheat and Mustard are conducted every year.*
- iv) Secondary data in prescribed formats are collected from all municipalities for preparation of municipal statistics as well as estimation of state domestic product every year. Data from rural local bodies are also being collected for the same purpose.
- v) Secondary data on various parameters like climate, education, health, agricultural statistics, land, transport, tourism, revenue collection etc. are collected from various govt / semi govt / Non- govt organisations / local bodies etc. for publication of district statistical Hand Book, Statistical Abstract, Economic Review every year.
- vi) Socio-economic survey on a variety of subjects are conducted in some selected sample mouza and urban areas on a matching sample basis with NSSO (GOI) for various rounds of Surveys of N.S.S.O.(G.O.I) as per schedules & instructions designed by NSSO(GOI).
- vii) Annual Survey of Industries to determine gross value added (GVA) of industries and some other estimates like employment, wages etc. are conducted every year under the collection of statistics act 1953, in some selected factories of the district on a matching sample basis with NSSO(GOI).
- viii) Production data are collected from selected factories every month for preparation of Index of Industrial Production (IIP) as per requirement of C.S.O. (G.O.I.)
- ix) Census for fully Government Employee through Treasury Office of this district.
- x) Secondary data from four line department related to Human Development has also been started.

2.2 Non-periodic works :-

Non-periodic surveys are also conducted such as, Economics Census & other different ad-hoc surveys as and when required by State Government.

22/03/13
Assistant Director
Bureau of A. E. & Statistics
Government of West Bengal
Bankura